

DC-AAPOR Respondent Burden Workshop

October 21, 2019

Program

8:45-9:15 am	Does Reducing the Length Matter? An Assessment of Respondent Burden with the Redesigned U.S. National Health Interview Survey—Adena Galinsky ( slides )
9:15-9:45 am	Exploring the Relationship between Burden Factors and Survey Response— Morgan Earp ( slides )
9:45-10:15 am	Changes in Reporting over Waves in the Consumer Expenditure Survey— Stephanie Eckman ( slides )
10:15-10:45 am	Assessing the Burden of the American Community Survey— Jessica Holzberg ( slides )
Break: 10:45-11:00 am
11:00-11:30 am	What Does it Mean to be Burdened?: Exploring Subjective Perceptions of Burden—Robin Kaplan ( slides )
11:30-12:00 pm	A Conceptual Framework of Response Burden— Ting Yan ( slides )
12:00-12:30 pm	Exploring monetary incentives and respondent burden in the Consumer Expenditure Interview Survey— Yezzi Lee ( slides )

Thank you to our workshop sponsor!

